

CALL FOR ENTRY
4th International DOK Leipzig Co-Production Meeting
Country Focus: Israel, Eastern Europe, Germany, Cine Regio

DOK Leipzig offers filmmakers and producers an internationally oriented podium and marketing facility for their new films. With the International DOK Leipzig Co-Production Meeting, the festival also provides a highly effective networking platform for finding financing for new documentary film projects and making new and rewarding international contacts. This year we are happy to welcome producers and filmmakers from Israel, Eastern Europe, Germany and the Cine Regio programme. Cine-Regio is a network of regional film funds in Europe. The network is continuously expanding and today represents 33 regional film funds from 12 EU Member States, in addition to Norway, Serbia and Switzerland.

We are looking for creative documentary feature length projects.

provisional schedule:

Wednesday, 29 October 2008

morning: Introduction into the Israeli Filmmarket afternoon: chances, risks and practical pitfalls in international co-productions
Case study: co-production Germany - Israel
Introduction into the German Filmmarket

Thursday, 30 October 2008

morning: Chances, risks and practical pitfalls in international co-productions Case study: co-production Germany - Eastern Europe afternoon: one - on - one Meetings of producers individual discussion of projects with fellow producers and observing distributors

one - on - one Meetings of commissioning editors individual discussion of projects with German commissioning editors

You can now apply for the Co-Production Meeting!

Wir are looking for producers, who:

- . are experienced or compatible with/for international co-productions
- . have a project in development, which is suitable for an international co-production
- . have already a part of the requested amount committed

Please send us the following details to your project until the 20th of August 2008:

(Please abide by the following defaults!!)

1. company profile (max 1 page)
2. filmography of the company mentioning involved co-producers and commissioning editors/broadcasters
3. Log line of the new project
4. Synopsis (max 150 lines)
5. financing plan (max 1 page)
6. stills of the project (if any)
7. CV and foto of the director
8. DVD with trailer or short description (5 min) (if available)

The selection will be finished on 10th of September latest.

The 4th International DOK Leipzig Co-Production Meeting is organised in co-operation with the IDFF (the Israeli Documentary Filmmakers Forum), the Dragon Forum (Poland), the IDF, Ex Oriente (Institute of Documentary Film, Czech Republic), AG DOK (The German Documentary Association) and Cine Regio.